

- Personal Information Protection Notice and Transaction Security Reminder

Reminder:

To enhance your transaction security, we recommend you install protection software on your mobile device.

Unicorn APP (hereinafter referred to as “theAPP”) collects and utilizes personal information under the provisions of the law, and provides information, preferential rights and benefits, and event notifications for marketing purposes related to business operations.

To enhance the login and trading experience, maintain the sale and stable operation of the service, and prevent transaction and capital risks when you use our App service, we will collect the following information, including your device model, operating system, unique device identifier, this App software version number, login IP address, the way, type and status of access to the network, network quality data, information related to this App operation log and service log geolocation information.

- Application for account opening

1. Account opening agreement
 2. Electronic trading agreement
 3. Risk Disclosure Statement
 4. Prevention of money laundering and combating the financing of terrorism consent matters
-